

Highland Heritage Day 2025 | Latha Dualchais na Gàidhealtachd

15th March 2025, Dingwall Academy 10am-3.45pm

Event Programme | Prògram an Là

10:00 – 11:00	Registration / tea and coffee / browse the display stands
10:30	Public arrive
11:00 – 11:15	Welcome, Introductions and Housekeeping
11:15 – 11:45	Our Experience of Fundraising – two presentations, from: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Fiona MacKenzie, Strathnaver Museum• Jim MacKay, Kirkmichael Trust
11:45 – 12:30	Group Workshops on fundraising Workshops led by a Facilitator to consider current practices, issues, challenges, and solutions around fundraising.
12:30 – 12:45	Plenary session To hear feedback from workshops
12:45 – 14:05	Extended Lunch Break Have lunch, chat, network, and view the display stands. Food provided by Batty's Baps, Dingwall.
14:05 – 14:25	Succession Planning – How we do it A presentation from Ian Leith, trustee of a number of heritage organisations including Wick Society, John O'Groats Mill Trust and Scottish Civic Trust
14:25 – 15:15	Group Workshops on organisational sustainability Workshops led by a Facilitator to consider how heritage groups can ensure continuity and organisational sustainability.
15:15 – 15:45	Plenary session To discuss feedback from workshops and common themes, ideas etc and closing remarks
15:45	Close

Supported by Grassroots Heritage in Scotland, an initiative of the Scottish Community Heritage Alliance
Funded by Historic Environment Scotland, National Heritage Lottery Fund and Highland Archaeology Services

SCHA's Grassroots Heritage in Scotland project is supported by

